Launch your career in higher education fundraising.

Participate in the CASE North America Fundraising Residency Program for 2019!

CASE North America Fundraising Residency Program is a career-launching opportunity for recent graduates and postgrads seeking fundraising positions within higher education.

If you are interested in fundraising, philanthropy and advancement in education, this program is for you. It’s a great way to begin a career while getting direct support and training from one of the largest associations for educational advancement professionals.

PROGRAM LENGTH
50 weeks: July 20, 2019 – June 26, 2020

COMPENSATION
Entry-level salary determined by host institution

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Learn fundraising fundamentals, including:
• prospect research
• building a case for support
• donor cultivation and gift solicitation strategy
• the art of making “the ask”
• donor stewardship

CASE BENEFITS
• Training at CASE’s 2019 Summer Institute in Educational Fundraising and a CASE district conference (winter 2019)
• Assigned an advancement mentor
• Opportunity to build global network through the CASE residency and graduate training programs outside the United States
• One year of CASE membership, including access to the online CASE advancement resource catalog (ARC)
• Allowance at the CASE Bookstore
• Post-program job search assistance by CASE staff and industry talent managers

QUALIFICATIONS
Candidates must be recent graduates or postgrads seeking a career in fundraising.

For Residency Program Information at Dartmouth Contact:
Lesa Knapp, Director of Advancement Business Operations
Lesa.M.Knapp@Dartmouth.edu or call (603) 646-1317

talent.case.org